Federal Student Aid (FSA) will be hosting a free Federal Financial Aid Virtual Bootcamp on October 19 and 21, 2021.

This bootcamp provides participants the opportunity to ask questions and is ideal for students, parents, student loan borrowers, school counselors, college access professionals, college and career coaches, and other members of the financial aid community.

Attendees can expect to learn about:

- resources to help navigate through the FAFSA® and financial aid process,
- how to avoid student loan scams, and
- student loan repayment options including information to help prepare for return to repayment as the forbearance period comes to an end, and more!
