“When the Terms Change: Building Resilience on Broken Foundations”

Kim started on the journey that no one wants on August 23, 2021. “Your husband’s body has been found,” said the detective on the other end of the phone. Her breath was immediately taken away. After 11 years of marriage, it all came to an abrupt and unexpected tragic end, and her life would never be the same. What would come next would be a quick unraveling of the unexpected secrets, deception, trauma, and more heartbreak. Kim transparently shares her story because shame needs secrecy to survive and she refuses to give in to either. Her strong faith has been the foundation of steady resiliency and tenacious resolve. Kim holds a master’s degree in Family Science and enjoys watching football and volunteering.
